Numb. 8570.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 9, to Saturday September 13, 1746.

Kenſington, September 13.

THE following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, and Grand Jury of the County of Nottingham, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, and Grand Jury of the County of Nottingham, beg Leave to approach your ſacred Perſon, with our ſincereſt Congratulations on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, under the wiſe and glorious Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, in the Suppreſſion of the late deſperate and unprovoked Attempt to deſtroy our moſt excellent Conſtitution in Church and State.

This happy Event appears to us in the ſtrongeſt Light, when we are led by the View of the general Calamities occaſioned by the Incurſion of thoſe audacious Diſturbers of the publick Peace, to the diſmal Proſpect of the Loſs of our Laws, Liberties and Religion, Bleſſings the moſt valuable to Britons, and which we hope long to enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign.

Petersbourg, Aug. 12. On Sunday laſt Baron Nieuhaus, the Bavarian Miniſter, had his Audience of Leave of the Empreſs, and is to ſet out very ſoon for his Court. Baron Mardefeldt, the Pruſſian Miniſter, was likewiſe to have taken his Leave of her Imperial Majeſty on Sunday laſt, but has been prevented by a Fit of the Gout.

From the Sardinian Camp at Cairo, Aug 31, N. S. The Army, after having halted at Acqui the 26th and 27th, marched from thence on the 28th in the Morning, and arrived here in four Marches, having paſſed thro' Baſtagno, Spingno and Aldelgo. The Marquis de Botta having required ſix Pieces of Cannon more, 32 Pound Ball, to be employed in the Siege of Gavi, his Majeſty immediately granted them, and they were to ſet out from Alexandria on the 29th. The four firſt Pieces of the ſame Calibre, and the 10 Mortars, which were before ſent to him, arrived at Novi on the 27th. The Chevalier Radicati, whom the King had ſent to the Imperial Army to be informed of their Motions, returned hither Yeſterday. He reports that that Army had begun to move on the 29th, divided into ſeveral Corps: The firſt, conſiſting of 19 Battalions, commanded by Count Brown, had taken the Rout of St. Chriſtophoro, to go from thence to the Bochetta, to diſlodge a Detachment of near 1000 Men, which the Enemy has ſtill there: The ſecond, of 13 Battalions, under the Command of M. Novati, marched to his Left by the Way of Saraval to ſecond him: And the third, of ſix Battalions, with M. Gorani at their Head, is advanced thro' Iſola to Arbiſola: This laſt Column is detached and goes directly to Biſegno. Prince Picolomini, who commands the Siege of Gavi, inveſted that Place on the 28th with 12 Battalions, and on the 29th he had already fired ſome Pieces of Cannon and Mortars. M. de Botta, who is not very well, remains at Novi with one Battalion and two Regiments of Dragoons. Advices from Final aſſure us, that Part of the Spaniſh Cavalry, with ſome Infantry, had paſſed thro' there; that M. Maillebois was at Lezzo, encamped between Savona and Vado with ſix French Battalions, and one in the Borough of Savona: They have beſides, ſome Poſts, facing our Mountain of Monteſerrat. The Infant Don Philip, who was thought to be at Savona, had embarked at St. Pierre d'Arena, but perceiving ſome Engliſh Ships, was obliged to diſembark at Seſtri, where he is at preſent, and is to go from thence incognito by Land.

Cairo, Sept. 2, N. S. This Day at Noon an Officer arrived here, diſpatched by the Marquis de Botta to the King, with the agreeable News, that Yeſterday Morning the 1ſt Inſtant, Count Brown having joined General Novati's Corps, had attacked the Poſt of the Bochetta, defended by 24 Companies of Grenadiers, and as many Picquets; that after ſome Hours Reſiſtance the Enemy had been driven from three Redoubts, and were entirely diſperſed, leaving four Pieces of Cannon Six-pounders to the Imperia perial Troops. General Brown having made himſelf Maſter of the Bochetta, immediately puſhed forward, but at about a Leagues Diſtance from thence, the Enemy aſſembled, and a ſmart Battle enſued, to the Advantage of the Imperialiſts, who marched directly for Ponte Decimo, where they enter'd the ſame Evening. There is at preſent a Battery of 22 Pieces of Cannon and eight Mortars before Gavi, which make a continual Fire. The Army, which has halted here two Days, the Troops being fatigued by the four laſt Marches, will be put in Motion immediately. Baron Leutrum has been ordered to reconnoitre the Poſts before us, and will return this Evening.

Munich, Sept. 5. The exact Day of the Elector's leaving Dreſden is not yet known, but Count Konigsfeld went to his Country Seat near Ratisbon Yeſterday, in order to receive his Electoral Highneſs, who will lay one Night at his Houſe in his Return.

Munich, Sept. 8. The Prince of Hilburghauſen's Regiment will paſs through this Town To-morrow in its Way to Donawert, and the ſecond Diviſion will begin to march from thence on the 18th. Letters dated at Acqui the 26th of Auguſt, N. S. inform us, that the King of Sardinia, who arrived there the Day before, intended to march with his Army, on the 27th, to Savona, which would take up ſix Days, whilſt the Marquis de Botta and General Brown were employed in the Siege of Gavi. Another Letter from Turin of the 27th ſays, that the Prince of Lichtenſtein, who has hitherto remained ſick at Colorno, was ſo far recovered, as to be able to rejoin the Army and reſume his Command.

Copenhagen, Sept. 10, N. S. This Afternoon the Court comes to Chriſtiansberg, and Tomorrow the Mourning for the late King begins in Town.

Berlin, Sept. 10, N. S. The King of Pruſſia is expected in Town on Wedneſday the 14th Inſtant, and it is ſaid that his Majeſty propoſes to ſtay here and at Charlottenburg about fourteen Days, and afterwards to take a Journey into Pruſſia.

Liege, Sept. 13, N. S. The Allied Army extends from the Chartreuſe of Liege to Viſet, their Head Quarters are at Bombay. Marſhal Saxe's Quarters are at Betto, diſtant a quarter of a League from Tongres, and the Troops under his Command cover the Ground from the Citadel of that Place to near Bilſem. The Trenches before Namur were opened upon the 11th Inſtant, at Eight o'Clock in the Morning. The Prince de Clermont has the Direction of the Siege, and has under him Meſſ. Segur, Lowendahl, l'Autrec, and Vellemur, with 61 Battalions and 40 Squadrons. We have an Account this Morning, that upon the 11th the French began to fire upon the Town from ſome Batteries erected on the Side of the Iron Gate; that their Firing was very terrible and continual, and that they had deſtroyed ſome Caſerns.

Maeſtricht, Sept. 14, N. S. Yeſterday the advanced Body of our Army paſſed through this Town in order to cover the Paſſage of the Meuſe, which was effected laſt Night upon the Bridges which had been thrown over that River for that Purpoſe. The Artillery and Baggage are following this Day.

Hague, Sept. 13, N. S. By the freſheſt Advices, our Army ſeemed to be ſtill lying on the Eaſt Side of the Meuſe, near Dalem, except a Detachment which is ſaid to have paſſed that River near Viſet, under the Command of General Trips. Marſhal Saxe is now ſaid to have ſent Detachments lower down that River, which have poſted themſelves at Stockem and Maſeyk. Namur, it is agreed on all Hands, is inveſted. Brigadier General Houghton, with the three Regiments under his Command, propoſed to begin his March for the Allied Army the Day after To-morrow. There are Letters juſt arrived of the 10th Inſtant from the Army, which mention our Army's being then encamped with its Right at Eeſden upon the Meuſe, and its Left at Hous near Dalem, whilſt the main Army of the Enemy extended along the Jaire, from Tongres down towards Maeſtricht.

Hague, Sept. 16, N. S. By Letters from Maeſtricht of the 14th Inſtant we learn, that our whole Army was that Morning actually repaſſing the Meuſe in four Columns; one juſt above the Town at St. Pierre; one through the Town; one juſt below it at Leumel; and the fourth a little lower at Smeermaes. It was to encamp that Evening at Lonaken. The main Army of the French lay on the 13th between Bilſem and Liege, with its Center and Head Quarters at Tongres.

Hague, Sept. 18, N. S. This Day Letters are arrived from the Allied Army, dated the 16th Inſtant, which mention the Retreat of the French Army, upon hearing that the Allies had repaſſed the Meuſe. We have juſt received the following Account from Mantua.

Mantua, Sept. 7, N. S. This Moment Prince Lowenſtein is arrived here from the Army, in his Way to Vienna, with the agreeable News of the Surrender of the City of Genoa at Diſcretion. All the Conditions the Senate asked of her Imperial Majeſty, were, To preſerve the Liberties of the City, and that no Troops ſhould be ſent into the Town. That if they could obtain theſe Demands, they would engage to put into her Majeſty's Hands all the Fortreſſes belonging to the Republick, and to give up every Thing elſe which ſhould be demanded of them; that in caſe the Empreſs deſired the City to be delivered up, the Senate were ready to ſubmit thereto. In all Appearance, one of the City Gates will be ſecured by way of Precaution. The Enemy having abandoned the Poſts of St. Pierre d'Arena, vaſt Magazines of all Sorts were found there.
